

ACCOUPLLEMENTS À DISQUES SERVOMATE®

The background of the page features a close-up photograph of two cylindrical metal coupling components. The top component is a flange with a central bore and several smaller holes around its perimeter. The bottom component is a disc with a central hub and a series of radial slots. The components are made of polished metal and are shown against a light, neutral background.

ServoMate®

Sommaire

Accouplements à disques® “SM” SERVOMATE	Page
Description	69
Modèle standard	69